CONTENT

Huh, where are the little rabbits? And who's sleeping on that branch in the tree?

In this first picture book, young children will encounter owl, pig, squirrel, goat, frog and other very first favourite animals. Thanks to the sturdy tabs, gripping, opening and flipping the pages is really easy and lots of fun, playfully training children's motor skills!

Short rhymes to read aloud describe the eye-catching scenes, inviting children to look closely and make first attempts at speaking.

The handy book format is tailored to children's small hands and ideal for on the go, making it easy to fit dog and cat into any diaper bag.

THE AUTHOR

Sandra Grimm began her career as an editor and is now a freelance author. Her background as a certified teacher offers a sound basis for her books for children and teenagers. She has three young children with whom she can test all her fun ideas.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Ana Weller was born in 1973 in Buenos Aires, Argentina and has been drawing and painting since she was a child. In order to make a profession of her hobby, she studied graphic design in Mainz, Germany. "Children and adults should have just as much fun looking at my books as I have creating them."
