ABOUT THE SERIES

ministeps are made especially for very young children gaining their first experiences with books and toys. The products in the ministeps® program are uniquely designed to correspond to the physical, mental and emotional abilities of babies and very young children, ranging in age from infants to 36 months.

CONTENT

Rattling, playing, touching. This cuddly soft fabric book can be explored with all senses. The colorful rattling ball is easy to turn and rattles happily as soon as babies poke it, making it particularly exciting for young children. At the same time, it playfully trains their perception, fine motor skills and hearing.
