The Luna Wunderwald series combines magical realism with environmental themes for girls 8 and up

ABOUT THE SERIES

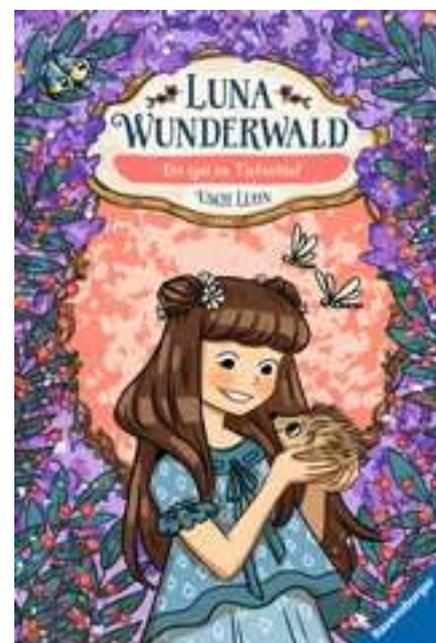

The Luna Wunderwald series takes place in a magnificent location: in the middle of the forest. The heroine Luna has been chosen to play a magical flute that allows her to communicate with the forest animals. She comes to their rescue when an animal is in danger or needs help. The stories combine magical realism with environmental themes for girls 8 and up.

CONTENT

Daisy and Drago have woken a young hedgehog from hibernation and Luna is more than busy setting things right again. As if that wasn't bad enough, Luna's magic flute is stolen and she loses the ability to talk to animals. A disaster. Who is the mean thief? To get her flute back, Luna needs a strong ally and is forced to trust the person she is afraid of the most: Julius Jupiter, the strange flute teacher.

THE AUTHOR

Usch Luhn grew up in Austria. She studied communication studies in Berlin, trained as a screenwriter and film dramaturge, and has many years experience working in radio and children's television. The author has written more than 30 books, many of which have been translated into other languages.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Lisa Brenner does not have a magical flute, but has been creating magic with pencil and pen since her childhood in Kaiserslautern, Germany. Since earning her degree in communication design, she has to take care that she has enough time for walks through the forest. She usually has so much to do that the barn owls have offered to help her out during the nighttime.
