A new, magical-realistic series for girls, with charming illustrations

CONTENT

Lucy loves her classes at the School of Day and Night Magic – cloud studies in particular. If only it wasn't for her classmate Elias. She's simply uneasy about the taciturn boy! To top things off, a cloud with a golden glow drifts across the sky and Lucy really starts to panic, because a cloud like that is very rare and usually augurs disaster. And indeed: a short time later, Elias disappears without a trace. When Lucy tries to find him, she runs into grave danger. Only a miracle can save her.

THE AUTHOR

Gina Mayer was born in Ellwangen, Germany, in 1965, and studied graphic design. She lives with her husband and two children in Düsseldorf, where she works as an advertising copywriter in addition to writing books for teens and adults.
