ABOUT THE SERIES

Peepholes as well as partially cut and die-cut pages prompt children 2 years and over to get involved and explore. The text motivates and inspires them to help the little animal, venture their own guesses and come along on an exciting search.

CONTENT

When the little fox wakes up, it can't find its mum. Can you help it find her? Follow the tracks with your fingers, check behind the large flaps or look through the peepholes and ask the animals in the forest for advice! This read-aloud book is told as one continuous story and encourages young children 2 years and over to participate. An exciting play and find book that allows children to immerse themselves in the world of the forest.

THE AUTHOR

Kathrin Orso spent her childhood in Landshut, Bavaria. Inspired by the books by Enid Blyton her big dream was to found a detective gang. Since this dream didn't come true, she started writing down her own adventure stories. In 2018 she became a freelance writer. In addition to youth novels and reading stories she writes lyrics for children's songs, picture books and comics.
