ABOUT THE SERIES

Parents and children alike will be enthusiastic about the appealing, simplified illustrations and charming texts of the series Edition Piepmatz. The concepts are loving and wellthought-out.

CONTENT

Max the dog and Mietz the cat roam the house, the town and the park, exploring everything there is to discover. Yet they never cross paths: Max is awake during the day and Mietz is up at night. The only place they ever meet is their pet bed.

This fun turnaround book can be read from the front or the back and inspires children to explore the differences between day and night. Endless read-aloud fun.

THE AUTHOR

Katja Reider studied German and publishing and for many years was press speaker for the "Youth Research" competition in Hamburg, Germany. She became an author after the birth of her own children and has since then published numerous books for children and young people, many of which have been translated into other languages.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Kathrin Wessel was born in 1981 and even in kindergarten could always be found in the drawing corner. After finishing high school, she studied communication design and later worked for an animation studio and as a graphics designer for a publishing house. These days, she is a freelance designer and has her own product label, "käselotti".
