- Fascinating tactile elements inspire children to touch
- Playfully supports motor skills and language acquisition

CONTENT

This charming story to read aloud takes children 18 months and over on an exciting journey of discovery. Together with the little lion, they explore the savannah, encountering many different animals – which the little ones can even touch! How scaly the crocodile's skin is and how fluffy Papa Lion's mane! The fascinating tactile elements and the charming rhymes promote toddlers' motor skill development and playfully inspire them to learn to talk.

THE AUTHOR

Kathrin Orso spent her childhood in Landshut, Bavaria. Inspired by the books by Enid Blyton her big dream was to found a detective gang. Since this dream didn't come true, she started writing down her own adventure stories. In 2018 she became a freelance writer. In addition to youth novels and reading stories she writes lyrics for children's songs, picture books and comics.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Iris Blanck grew up in Hamburg where she studied illustration at the College of Design. She subsequently worked as a screen and character designer for children's CD-ROMs and an animation production before becoming a freelance illustrator and art director in 2004. Since then, she has created illustrations and mascots for numerous children's books, textbooks and online portals and couldn't be happier with her decision.
