CONTENT

Who's racing to the site of an emergency? Whether it's a major fire, a break-in at the kiosk or a blocked road – in this book, you decide whether it's the firefighters or the police who come to the rescue. Move your magic sound vehicle over the pages and find out where the brakes squeal, the engine howls and the siren wails. There are 5 exciting sounds to discover on each page.

THE AUTHOR

Bernd Penners, born in 1958, is an elementary school teacher and is still engaged in this career with great enthusiasm. With his books he would like to make children smile and show that it's a good idea to not always take things super seriously.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Christoph Schöne was born in Munich in 1967. After finishing school, he served a year of alternative civilian service in a nursing home where he ended up working for several years. He has always enjoyed drawing, but in 1997, he was finally able to realize his lifelong dream to become a freelance illustrator. Christoph Schöne is a founding member of the comic club "Comicaze" in Munich. By now, he has illustrated numerous books and CD-Roms.
