CONTENT

The cardboard picture book series about “Anna” deals with all topics that are important to two-year-olds, such as siblings, being sick or spending a night at grandma’s. This volume describes a day at kindergarten.

In the morning, Daddy takes Anna to kindergarten. Anna is looking forward to kindergarten because she can sing and make music with the other children or they can play or have breakfast together. She also uses the bathroom and washes her hands there. Anna even has her nap at kindergarten before Mum picks her up in the afternoon.

Warm, detailed images show children many familiar scenes from everyday kindergarten life. They offer important opportunities for identification, taking away the fear of the unknown for children and adults alike and helping them get their bearings and feel comfortable during this exciting time.

THE AUTHOR

After completing her training in elementary education, Regina Schwarz studied social pedagogy. It was during this time that she began to write poems. Apart from poetry, she has published numerous picturebooks. Regina Schwarz's goal in writing her own texts is to motivate people to read (aloud) and to inspire listeners to be creative themselves. Schwarz lives in the Rhineland, is married and has three grown sons.
