Many fascinating tactile elements invite children to touch and explore

With short texts to read aloud and a sidebar full of vignettes

CONTENT

Let's go explore the farm!

Many fascinating tactile elements invite children to touch and explore. And if they look closely, they'll find many of the small images from the edge of the page again in the large scenes, training children's sense of touch, promoting their ability to focus and, most importantly, providing a lot of fun.

The short texts to read aloud, along with naming the items and animals in the search images, inspire children to talk and tell stories, thus supporting their language development.

THE AUTHOR

Frauke Nahrgang was born in 1951 in Stadtallendorf, where she lives today with her husband and two children. She has been working as a primary school teacher since 1976 and enjoys teaching school beginners most of all. At school she began to write texts for beginners, and she has been writing children's books since 1987. Frauke Nahrgang watches children very carefully and is interested in how they make contact, talk and communicate with each other. She transfers these observations strikingly into the stories in her picture books.
