CONTENT

Caterpillar, hedgehog, butterfly – with the help of soft, yet sturdy felt elements, they all invite children to play and explore in this book.

Particularly fascinating: the felt elements are interconnected from page to page. For example, when the caterpillar on the cover turns into a butterfly, the little mouse on the first double page flits back into its hiding place as if by magic – fascinating children and ensuring endless sliding fun!

THE AUTHOR

Sandra Grimm began her career as an editor and is now a freelance author. Her background as a certified teacher offers a sound basis for her books for children and teenagers. She has three young children with whom she can test all her fun ideas.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Monika Neubacher-Fesser was born in 1959. After studying graphic and design in Kassel she worked for an advertising agency in Hannover. Since the birth of her first child in 1988 she has been working as a free lance illustrator. She also writes books on the subjects of silk painting and hobby and crafts. Monika Neubacher-Fesser lives with her husband and two children in Hannover.
