ABOUT THE SERIES

The combination of photos and cheerful color illustrations makes for a very special picture book experience. Numerous small images are hidden in the photos, kindling a spirit of exploration and offering many impulses for conversations. Children will be inspired to explore the setting – in the book as well as in real life.

CONTENT

This first read-aloud story takes adults and children on an entertaining trip into the garden. Lotta marvels at the little creepy-crawlies, waters the colorful flowers, dances with Henri in the rain and is amazed at all the things she encounters out in nature. The combination of photos and cheerful color illustrations makes for a very special picture book experience. Numerous small images are hidden in the photos, kindling a spirit of exploration and offering many inspirations for conversations.

THE AUTHOR

Sandra Grimm began her career as an editor and is now a freelance author. Her background as a certified teacher offers a sound basis for her books for children and teenagers. She has three young children with whom she can test all her fun ideas.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Katja Senner studied communications and has worked as an independent illustrator since her graduation. Her illustrations have been published in numerous books by a number of publishers. She loves painting and extensive walks through the woods.
