The beloved woolly Mangalica pigs Crummel and Fussel experience winter in this delightful adventure story.

CONTENT

Crummel and Fussel meet forest animals that have gathered mountains of food for the winter. "Winter? Snow? Why would we gather food?" they ask themselves. Then it starts to snow, and soon the surprised animals and their stores are covered in mounds of snowflakes. It's a good thing Crummel and Fussel are so good at smelling and digging. They create a cozy hole where all the animals can huddle together and share their gathered food.

THE AUTHOR

Judith Allert was born in 1982 and studied modern German literature in Bayreuth, where she also published her first children's books. In 2009 she completed her master's thesis on the topic of fantasy writing for children and teens, and she has been a freelance author ever since. Today the author lives on an old farm with her husband, dogs, cats, horses, hens, and woolly pigs.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Joëlle Turlonias, born in 1985 in Hanau, Germany, earned her degree in visual communication with concentrations in illustration and painting at the Bauhaus University of Weimar. Since 2009 she has been a freelancer, and currently lives, draws and paints in Düsseldorf.
