CONTENT

Every parent has been there: It's late but the little ones aren't tired at all.

Even though sleeping and dreaming is the best thing ever. After all, in a dream, you can have all the best adventures. Whatever you want to be – a pirate, a superhero or a knight – anything is possible in a dream! For anyone who doesn't believe that, this bedtime picture book with falling-asleep guarantee is the perfect choice.

"Slow is always better!" is the motto of the two alpacas Paco and Cuddly. And so they sail along and sleep on their house raft, going across the lake at a sleepy speed – until a restless weasel starts working for them. "Those who sleep miss out on life," the weasel claims and would rather never go to bed at all. Can the alpacas' bedtime stories convince the weasel that you have the best adventures in your dreams?

And if you want to know how these stories end, you'll have to dream up the ending yourself.

THE AUTHOR

Judith Allert was born in 1982 and studied modern German literature in Bayreuth, where she also published her first children's books. In 2009 she completed her master's thesis on the topic of fantasy writing for children and teens, and she has been a freelance author ever since. Today the author lives on an old farm with her husband, dogs, cats, horses, hens, and wooly pigs.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Joëlle Turlonias, born in 1985 in Hanau, Germany, earned her degree in visual communication with concentrations in illustration and painting at the Bauhaus University of Weimar. Since 2009 she has been a freelancer, and currently lives, draws and paints in Düsseldorf.
